Chapter 1 by The Book of Stories

"Hey, Kina, are you coming to the park with us?" My mom intoned. Ugh, Outside? No thanks.

"Hah...No thanks, I don't want to blind anyone since I'm so pasty."

"Hahah! Okay, sweetheart, then can you clean up your room? Also, NO ANIME."

I sighed. "Alright, Mom. Seeya." Heheh.

When I heard the door shut, I quickly cleaned my room, making sure everything is okay. Running to the kitchen, I grab my secret stash of the most amazing snack in the world, Pocky.

On my way up the stairs, I grab Chelsea, my adorable, well, I wouldn't say that to a fat cat, but you know, my cat.

I thrust my self into my bedroom and lock the door, and close the curtains.

Happily, I smash the button Netflix on the remote, and as its loading, I made a pillow fort on my bed so I could be comfy while watching anime.

About on the last episode, my pocks were almost gone, so I was going to fill up.

When I reached for my door, I unlocked it, but it didn't open.

O-O Oh boy, was I screwed.
